

Office of the Registrar

December 7, 2022

Dear Woohee,

You've made it to the end of the Fall and Fall 2 modules! As you continue your classes this Fall semester, please set aside some time to provide HGSE with helpful feedback by evaluating your Fall and Fall 2 modules.

HGSE places a great deal of importance on the evaluation of its courses and programs. It is an institutional requirement that students complete course evaluations for each class in which they are enrolled. Students who do not complete all their course evaluations will be prevented from registering for further courses (e.g., J-term and Spring semester) until they fulfill the course evaluation requirement.

Your participation is very important to the community, and we thank you again for taking the time to complete your course evaluations.

Best wishes,

Miguel Sahagún, Ph.D. | Registrar of the Harvard Graduate School of Education

Completing your Course Evaluations

Course evaluations are accessed via your Worklist (upper right-hand corner of your homepage) on my.Harvard. Course evaluations are accessible in my.Harvard only, not in Canvas.

Understanding your valuable perspectives and experiences is critical to HGSE's continuous improvement efforts. We encourage you to give special attention to the open-ended questions in the course evaluation as they provide valuable opportunities for commenting and reflection.

Course evaluations will be posted on the web, and hard copies will be made available for future reference.

HGSE course evaluations have five primary purposes:

- To help instructors improve the design of their courses and strengthen their teaching
- To encourage student reflection on their own learning
- To better understand student experiences of equity, inclusion, and belonging during their course experiences
- To provide information about courses to future students
- To inform the professional review process for faculty members

Note: Your responses are always anonymous, and course evaluation reports provide no way to attribute individual comments to students.

Questions? If you have any additional questions about the course evaluation process, please feel free to contact the HGSE Registrar's office at registrar@gse.harvard.edu. Students who believe they are experiencing technical problems should email myharvard_support@harvard.edu.

Best,
