

Office of the Registrar

Concentration Declaration Process

Dear EdM Student,

We are thrilled to welcome you to your Degree Programs today! We are equally excited to remind you of the opportunity to declare a Concentration and explain the process for doing so.

Many of you expressed an interest in a Concentration on your HGSE admissions application. Please note that any interest expressed at that time was non-binding.

In order to pursue a Concentration, you must declare your intention to do so via my.harvard by Monday, August 22 at 5pm Eastern Daylight Time. Please click here for instructions on how to complete the process. Declaring a Concentration will signal to the Concentration faculty that you plan to join their cohort this fall.

Please take the time you need to decide which Concentration, if any, best fits your interests—and remember that declaring a Concentration is completely optional. The Concentration Co-Chairs of each concentration will host a Q&A Session on Wednesday, August 17. Times and locations vary. Details are provided here in addition to an overview, FAQ, and course requirements for each Concentration.

We look forward to seeing you at the Q&A Sessions and to welcoming many of you to a Concentration cohort this fall! Should you have any questions, please let me know.

Best,

Tycie

Tycie N. Coppett, Ph.D.

Director for Master's Studies | Harvard Graduate School of Education
Executive Committee | Committee on the Concerns of Women
Senior Proctor | Dean of Students Office | Harvard College
13 Appian Way, Longfellow Hall G045
Cambridge, MA 02138
617-496-4645