Tuition and Course Credit Policies Affecting Ed.M. Students

Full-time Students

- Students must register for a minimum of 12 credits per semester.
- Students may register for up to 20 credits per semester.
- Students may not exceed a total of 40 credits. HPL does not count towards the max credits.

Part-Time Students (Admitted Spring 2020 and beyond)*

- Students must register for a minimum of 8 credits per semester.
- Students may register for up to 10 credits in each semester.
- Students must meet the minimum requirement of 32 credits overall.
- Credits for courses taken during May, June, or July do not count toward the fall or spring minimums.
- January term credits are counted as part of the spring semester.
- Students will complete the degree in two years (Fall 2020, Spring 2021, Fall 2021, Spring 2022).

Unless on Financial Aid, students using TAP or transferring prior HGSE coursework have the option of being billed per credit and are not subject to these minimum and maximum credit requirements. They will also have the tuition for How People Learn, taken during June-July 2020, added to their fall term bill, if so enrolled.*

Additional Tuition Information

Tuition is billed in two installments – July and December. Current tuition is due in advance of each semester for which the student registers. Students at Harvard University are billed electronically. Accounts can be accessed through one of the monthly emails sent by Student Accounts or by logging into my.Harvard. Payments may be made either electronically or by check. Credit card payments are not accepted.

- For more information about cost of attendance, please see the Financial Aid website.
- For more information about tuition requirements see the Student Handbook, listed under Student and Campus Life (to be posted by August 1).p
