

In this document, you will find a complete list of course tags used for the HGSE online Catalogue. The taxonomy, words, and phrases used are designed to facilitate the course searching process. This means that the tags may not always use technical language from a domain or discipline, but does use language accessible to external audiences (e.g., new students). There are three types of tags, those relating to content, competencies, as well as pedagogy.

We have prepopulated suggested tags for your course(s), based on last year’s tags. If your course is new, tags have not been prepopulated, though you may choose from these below.

On your course forms, you may add tags from this list by entering the four-digit code in parenthesis associated with a tag. You may also delete any prepopulated tags you reject by striking out (not deleting) the pre-populated value.

1. Content Tags

Students will use content tags to search for courses that cover content domains related to their interests. These tags are not intended to be mutually exclusive and categorically exhaustive.
