

HARVARD

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Literacy & Languages Concentration

Question & Answer Session

Honoring the First People

Recognizing those enslaved

L&L Team

Faculty Co-Chairs

Dr. Pamela Mason

Dr. Catherine Snow
(on leave Fall '22)

Concentration Coordinator
Emily Goldstein

Why L&L?

The Literacy and Languages (L&L) Concentration prepares you with core knowledge about how language and literacy skills support school achievement and promote student outcomes, locally and globally. In this concentration, you will explore literacy from developmental, academic, and cultural perspectives and learn how to support literacy across the life span for all learners, including multilingual and multiliterate learners, members of communities of color, and learners with special needs.

Last Year's Cohort!

Requirements

- Slot 1:

- Take 3 out of 4 Language and Literacy Development Series Modules (6 credits).

- H811F - From Language to Literacy with Prof. Meredith Rowe. Fall 2022.
- H811G - Reading Dev. and Instruction from a Strengths-based Perspective with Dr. Mason. Fall 2022.
- H811H - Reading to Learn: Socialization, Language & Deep Comprehension with Dr. Paola Uccelli. Spring 2023.
- H811J - Adolescent Literacy Development and Instruction with Dr. Catherine Snow. Spring 2023.

Requirements

- Slot 2:
 - Electives. Recommended list of elective courses related to language development and literacy available.

- Slot 3:
 - Attendance at bi-weekly concentration events: Speakers' Series, Know Your Faculty/Ask Me Anything. Fridays, 12:00-1:15pm. In person.
 - Mark Your Calendars! : September 2nd, September 23rd, October 7th, October 21st, November 4th, November 18th, December 2nd

Last Year!

Patricia Auerbach

Harvard Graduate School of Education

AUTHOR'S EVENT

with HGSE students

Esteemed HGSE Authors
discuss their process,
their work and their journeys

Monday, April 4th, 2022
5:00-6:00PM

IN PERSON Gutman
Conference Center
Room 1

AND ONLINE Register now at :

<https://tinyurl.com/LLAuthorsEventApril2022>

HOSTED BY

Judy Newman
aka Pepper Springfield
President and Reader-
in-Chief, Scholastic
Book Clubs

FEATURING
HGSE
AUTHORS

Patricia Auerbach

Manar Hazzaa

Dilek Altun

Rachel Kushner

Languages and Literacy

Building Concentration Community

- Organize "fieldtrips" to University museums, local museums,
- Explore Cambridge (Forgotten Souls of Tory Row, Brattle Street)
- Explore Boston (Black Heritage Trail, Freedom Trail, the Seaport, the North End)
- Schedule Study Breaks
- Movie Nights (or afternoons!)
- Fresh air and exercise (Walk along the Charles River, local parks)
- Share common interests (writing, crafting, meditating)

Let Emily know what you want to do, and she'll publicize it on the Literacy and Languages Canvas site.

Location & Hours

HGSE campus, Larsen Hall, G10 (ground level)

Harvard students may visit the Lab to study and/or browse the resources. Students are also able to check out books and materials.

Fall 2022 Hours: TBD

The JCRL Online Catalog

<https://www.libib.com/u/jcrl>

'21-'22 Cohort

HARVARD UNIVERSITY
GRADFEST
2022

L&L Alum Perspective

- Olivia Barbieri, '21
- Deicy Sturm, '21
- Katie Wiseman, '22

Questions?

Need help?

- Reach out to Emily!
 - Emily_Goldstein@gse.harvard.edu
 - Reach her via the Canvas slack channel.
 - Find her in the basement of Longfellow- G040.

Thank You!