Subject: HGSE Course Catalog and Foundations Course Enrollment Updates

Dear HGSE Students,

On behalf of the Office of the Registrar, we hope you are eagerly anticipating the start of August classes on August 3rd! I'm writing to share some important reminders for August Term and Fall Semester. The Registrar team is available to assist you if you encounter any roadblocks or have any questions; please visit our website for office and virtual hours. A copy of previous emails can be found here. The topics covered in this email include: HGSE Foundations course enrollment, Fall Term Bill, HGSE 2023-2024 Course Catalog.

Foundations Course Enrollment

As a reminder, Foundations courses are required for the Ed.M. degree and students are expected to be in residence and available during the times when Foundations courses are offered in August, beginning on August 3. Please visit the Registrar's web page on Foundations for Residential Ed.M. students for the dates of each course.

Thank you for submitting your Equity & Opportunity: Identity in Context topic preferences as needed. the Office of the Registrar will officially enroll you in all of your August-Term Foundations courses accordingly (LCH101, EVI101, and EQO11). This means that no further action is required on your part. On Tuesday, July 18th, by end of day you will see your placement in all three August Foundations courses in My.harvard. *Please note that this date has changed***

Please note that you might see preliminary placements appear in my.harvard as early as today, but those are not final. These are part of several processes we need to run to complete the Foundations course placements. If questions arise, we ask that you please do not contact any HGSE offices about your schedule until your full August schedule displays in the system on July 18th.

IMPORTANT NOTE Please note that enrollment and registration holds will be ignored for the Foundations course registration process. HOWEVER, you have until 12:00 pm ET on Tuesday,

August 1st to clear your holds, if any, or your Foundations courses (LCH101, EVI101, and EQO11) will be dropped from your record.

Fall Term Bill

Please note that you will receive your official Fall term bill from University Student Financials Services today, Monday, July 10, 2023. If you have any questions, please let me know.

In order to enroll and attend in Fall term courses (including August Term), you are required to have paid your Fall term tuition and fees in full (unless you have arranged to pay according to the monthly payment plan, in which case, you are expected to have paid at least one-fourth of the current Fall charges). In addition, you are required to have paid all remaining balances on your student account, if any. You can find a student account sample and overview here.

HGSE 2023-24 Course Catalog

An initial release of the course catalog will become available beginning Saturday, July 15 via the “Course Search” tab inside my.Harvard. Note that course offerings are not yet complete, and details are subject to change. Additional courses will be added in the coming weeks. Please consider the following when searching our course catalog.

Important notes:

- This is an initial batch of course information with further courses to be added and corrections to be made over the following weeks through August.
- Course meeting times often must be revised during July and August, so some dates and times of courses will change up until the course previews and enrollment week in late August.
- Students should not yet plan on which elective courses to take. Students will have the opportunity to view course previews and consult with faculty advisors before deciding on which elective courses to take. We are making this preliminary version of the catalogue available now for browsing and initial planning.
