Subject: TAP Information for J-Term courses

Dear HGSE TAP Student,

You are receiving this email because you are a continuing student that used TAP during the fall. If that is still the case, and you plan to use TAP benefits for J-Term courses, please pay special attention to this email. You will receive detailed information about Spring term early in January. If you plan to take an HGSE J-term course, these courses will count towards your spring semester credit limit (10 credits). That means that if you take 4 credits during J-term, then, you can only take up to 6 credits during the Spring Term.

Enrollment Periods and Counting Your Credit Limit
Your per semester credit/course limit under TAP and TRP is available to you for up to three enrollment periods per calendar year. If you are taking non-Harvard courses on a quarter system and you do not reach your per quarter credit limit, you cannot transfer unused credits to a fourth enrollment period.

Course Start Date	Semester
January through April	Counts toward spring semester
May through August	Counts toward summer semester
September through December	Counts toward fall semester

Please note that J-Term courses will be added to the Spring-Term bill and TAP credit to your account a day after spring add/drop deadline of February 5, 2024.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

Miguel Sahagún, Ph.D. | Assistant Dean of Enrollment Services and Registrar of the Harvard Graduate School of Education
