Incomplete Grades

Incomplete (INC) grades are granted to students only at the discretion of the instructor. Students should not expect to receive an INC automatically if course work is not completed on time. In cases where students have failed to submit all course assignments by the due date, the instructor will determine whether the grade will be INC, NCR (No Credit), or an appropriate letter grade.

If an instructor is willing to grant a student an INC grade, then both parties are expected to agree to the terms of the Incomplete Grade Contract. Please click here to view the “How to” guideline for submitting Incompletes and Contracts. As a reminder, when the instructor enters an INC grade in my.Harvard, doing so will now trigger a display of the contract, which the instructor is expected to complete and then submit within my.harvard.

Exceptions:

- If the course work is to be completed within ten days after the deadline for exams or final papers, no contract is needed. The student will be given a ten-day “extension” to finish coursework.
- Students graduating this coming May cannot be granted incomplete grades.

Course Evaluations

It is an institutional requirement that students complete online course evaluations for each class in which they are enrolled. Students may view their final grade in a course online only if their evaluation for that course has been submitted.
